

What better holiday gift for your BFF than a book perfect for her passion?

The readergirlz divas, our postergirlz advisory council, and one fabulous bookseller have teamed together to give you the most excellent shopping list for your BFF and yourself this holiday season. Check out our list of ten girl personalities, print out the PDF, and then shoot over to your local bookstore. Even better, print out all the lists, hole punch the corner, and tie them together with a festive ribbon. Happy shopping and happy holidays!
